

Terms & Conditions

Last updated: January 2026

These Terms & Conditions ("Terms") govern your access to and use of FaisalabadTimes.co (the "Platform"), which allows event organizers to list and sell tickets, allows users to discover, purchase, and manage tickets to events, and offers paid marketing and event-management services (social media management, paid advertising, event promotion, brand collaborations, and similar). By creating an account, browsing the Platform, purchasing a ticket, or booking a service, you agree to be bound by these Terms.

1. Eligibility & Accounts

You must be at least 18 years old, or the age of legal majority in your jurisdiction, to create an account, purchase tickets, or book a service on the Platform. By registering, you confirm that the information you provide is accurate and current.

- You are responsible for keeping your account credentials confidential.
- You are responsible for all activity under your account.
- Contact us immediately if you suspect unauthorized use of your account.

2. Tickets & Purchases

Tickets sold through the Platform are issued by the event organizer; we act as a ticketing intermediary. A ticket purchase is a contract between you and the relevant event organizer, subject to any event-specific terms shown on the event listing.

- Each ticket is valid only for the specified event, date, time, and seat category.
- Tickets may not be resold above face value unless permitted by the organizer and applicable law.
- You must present a valid order confirmation, QR code, or ID for entry as required by the event.

3. Marketing & Service Bookings

Where you book a marketing or event-management service through our "Book a Meeting" process, the specific scope, timeline, and price will be confirmed with you directly (by email or WhatsApp) before work begins. That confirmation, together with these Terms, governs the engagement.

- Monthly retainer packages renew automatically each billing period unless cancelled in advance.
- Third-party ad spend (Meta, Google, etc.) is billed at cost and is separate from our service fee.

4. Payments & Fees

Prices are displayed in PKR and may include a booking or service fee, shown before checkout is completed. Payments are processed through our third-party payment provider; we do not store your full card details on our own servers.

- All payments must clear before a ticket is confirmed and issued, or before service work begins.

- Fraudulent or disputed transactions may result in order cancellation and account suspension.

5. Cancellations & Refunds

Refund eligibility for tickets and services is set out in full in our separate Return & Refund Policy, which forms part of these Terms.

6. Acceptable Use

You agree not to:

- Use bots or automated tools to purchase tickets in bulk or bypass purchase limits;
- Use the Platform for fraudulent transactions;
- Upload false, misleading, or infringing event or promotional content;
- Interfere with the security or normal operation of the Platform.

7. Liability & Disclaimers

The Platform is provided "as is." We do not guarantee that events will proceed as scheduled, that marketing services will achieve specific results, or that listings are free of error. To the maximum extent permitted under the laws of Pakistan, we are not liable for indirect or consequential damages arising from your use of the Platform, attendance at an event, or performance of a marketing campaign.

8. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. Material changes will be notified via the Platform or by email before they take effect. Continued use after changes take effect means you accept the revised Terms.
